

RBS GALA 2009

Newsletter 2

Holiday Clear-Out

Remember to collect all your White-Elephant goods ready for the gala this also includes books, toys and clothing. You can let us know you have items for us by emailing galawhite-elephant@redbeach.school.nz, and we will give you a reminder when collection begins! We are happy to have any good condition goods but please no mattresses, and electrical that is not in working condition. We'd love you to encourage neighbours/friends and family to donate as well, so feels free to pass this email address on.

Communities and Responsibilities

Please don't forget to let your child's teacher know if you are able to help. Help is required before the gala and on the day of the gala. Both of these are equally as important to make the day a success. You can also use the above email address as a form of communication, which we will happily pass on to the teachers. If you have worked on certain stalls over the years and you wish to carry on this would be much appreciated, even if it is outside your community. It is such a help to us to have people with experience who are able to take over some of the responsibility. With the right amount of help we will be able to do a roster that might require only 1 hour of your time on the day :o)

Food - Archimedes and Rutherford

Books - Da Vinci

Toys and Clothing - Cousteau

White Elephant - Edison

Quickfire - Pasteur

Children's entertainment - Galileo

CHILDREN'S INSPIRATION

This year we have decided to include the children more directly. They have the opportunity to practice their entrepreneurial skills and have a stall at the gala. They need put a proposal in to outline their ideas, how they would implement it and how profitable it would be. Teachers have more details and proposal forms will be attached to the school newsletter. Olivia and Charlotte made $150 for the school last year.

PLANTS

Do you have any plants/seedlings in your garden that could be propagated and put into smaller pots for us to sell at the gala? These can be brought to the hall the week building up to the gala.

MUFTI DAYS

Mufti days are going to be held on the four Fridays building up to the gala. Instead of a gold coin donation, each mufti day we will ask you to bring along an item to go towards our Quick Fire Raffles.

The dates for these mufti days are:

Friday 23rd October - Packet Day

Friday 20th October - Can Day

Friday 6th November - Bottle Day

Friday 13th November - Produce Day

Red Beach has a fantastic reputation for holding a wonderful gala and we are working hard to make sure this a great family fun day for everyone.
